Foreword

This subject index to THE JOURNAL OF BONE AND JOINT SURGERY covers the volumes published from 1919 to 1948. Compiled over many years by Dr. E. Bishop Mumford, it was first published in 1949, in loose-leaf form, for distribution to the then members of The American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons. With the generous permission of Dr. Mumford it is now reprinted for general distribution. This index overlaps by one year THE SUBJECT BIBLIOGRAPHY 1948–1957 which was published in 1958. Together they make available continuous subject indexes of THE JOURNAL from 1919 through 1957.

FOREWORD TO THE FIRST EDITION

This index of the JOURNAL OF BONE AND JOINT SURGERY is not an index of the orthodox type, in which the subject matter as well as the names of the authors are indexed. Furthermore, it is not complete, since it contains only the major articles and not the many case reports, descriptions of special splints and gadgets, and other minor subject matter.

The articles are listed under 104 headings selected by the compiler, but as the index is furnished as a loose-leaf book, further headings or subdivisions of the present headings may be made as desired. In order to condense the index as much as possible, only the name of one author is given in cases of plural authorship.

The index gives under the broad subject headings: (1) the specific subject of each article, (2) the name of the author, (3) the volume number, and (4) the page number. Beginning with volume 30, the American issues have the prefix "A" and the British, "B".

The index has been compiled over many years and it is suggested that, as each new issue is received, the articles be entered under their proper headings. This will necessitate about one-half hour and will keep the index up to date.

Since the index is printed in loose-leaf form, the present volume will be satisfactory for many years.

Should clippings or reprints of articles published in other journals be filed in your library, they can be recorded in this index with reference to the files. Inasmuch as many articles have a bibliography of some extent an almost complete bibliography to any subject can be obtained by the use of this index.

The compiler believes that the index will be found practical and very useful in the search for articles on a specific subject published in the JOURNAL. It is with sincere pleasure that it is given to the American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons for distribution to its membership by the compiler who has been honored in so many ways by the Academy.
